

On Thursday, the Subcommittee will hold an oversight hearing to examine the Census Bureau's plans for achieving a diverse workforce, particularly with respect to the upcoming 2010 Census.

The following witnesses will testify:

Panel I:

- The Honorable Charles Louis Kincannon, Director, U.S. Bureau of the Census
- Mathew Scirè, Director of Strategic Issues, United States Government Accountability Office

Panel II

- Leigh A. McGee, Chair, Census Advisory Committee on the American Indian and Alaska Native Population
- Dr. Bernie Miller, Chair, Census Advisory Committee on the African American Population
- Deeana Jang, Policy Director, Asian Pacific Islander Health Forum
- Rosa Rosales, National President, League of United Latin American Citizens
- Stephen J. Pemberton, Chief Diversity Officer and Vice President, Diversity and Inclusion, Monster Worldwide, Inc. (minority witness)

Documents and Links

- Statement of Charles Louis Kincannon
- Statement of Dr. Bernie Miller
- Statement of Ms. Deeana Jang
- Statement of Ms. Rosa Rosales